A MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Stephanie Ellis, CTIE, VTA, TAE

What a fun and exciting few months it has been! This year I have travelled to Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, Orlando twice for conferences and park visits, I have been on my first Disney cruise and my first Royal Caribbean cruise! I have been able to learn so much about travel in the time of COVID and am happy to share everything with all of you so be on the lookout for details on each trip experience in upcoming newsletters. The one thing that I have learned from each trip is that even though things may be different I needed to get out there to refuel my soul, I needed it more than I knew. I needed to meet new people, explore new places, eat new foods...I needed this and I believe that most of you would agree that you need it to.

Let's work together to experience more of this great world!

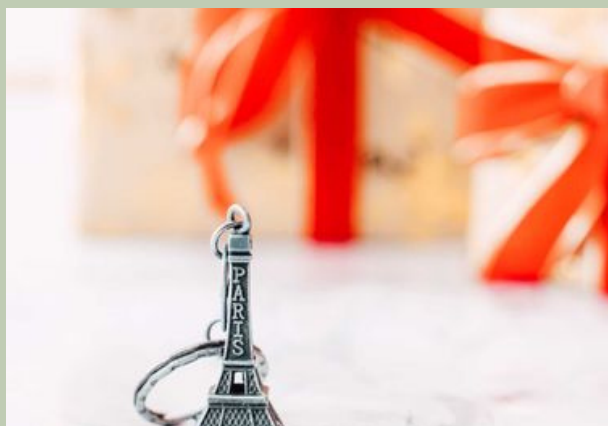

Until our next Adventure!

GIVING THE GIFT OF TRAVEL

by Ariana Crabtree

The last two years have been incredibly tough on everyone. We have been stuck at home, pushing through work, and missing family. As the world starts to open, there is no time like the present to start thinking about your next trip.

If you are struggling to find a gift for your family or someone special in your life this holiday season, there is truly no gift like the gift of an experience.

At Tr4vel Girl, we are committed to helping families reconnect and get back into the world safely in 2022.

We will be there every step of the way to help you navigate the new world of travel and plan an unforgettable experience for your family.
