The most beautiful things in life are not things. They're people, places, memories and pictures. They're feelings and moments, and smiles and laughter.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Stephanie Ellis, CTIE, VTA, TAE

What a crazy and unprecedented time that we are experiencing. To say that we are humbled as we continue to do what we love is an understatement. We appreciate each and every one of your kind words and thoughts. I want to personally let you know that we are OK. We are spending a lot of time getting you re-booked, processing cancellations when needed, and booking new trips. The three of us have been "all hands on deck" since the virus started and I am very thankful for our fantastic team. If you know of anyone that does not have an agent representing their best interests or anyone that is frustrated with their current situation, please let them know that we are fee free and ready to assist. We are helping quite a lot of travelers that are not our original clients because they are stuck and have no idea how to navigate their travel that has been affected. I am so glad that we are able to assist and take some burden away during this very stressful situation. If there is anything that we can do for you, please let us know as we are available around the clock. Take care of yourselves so that we may enjoy our future adventures!

TAKE A BACKYARD VACATION

by Ariana Crabtree

It is not easy being cooped up inside all day, especially with the additional stress from uncertainty of the virus. Those with children and grandchildren staying with us have an additional worry of easing their fears. There are things that you can do though to keep things fun and distracting without leaving your home.

- Create a backyard scavenger hunt or use this template to help.
- Make bird feeders for our feathered friends.
- Have a wonderful picnic in your yard.
- Simply take a look around your yard and look for the things that we are often too busy to notice such as toad houses, spider webs, bird nests... you never know what you might find.

"The only way to make sense out of change is to plunge into it, move with it and join the dance."

-Alan Watts
